

Gerald Miller

Gerald 'Ger' Miller of Croydon, Pa., and formerly of Philadelphia, died on Saturday, Nov. 16, 2013, at his residence after fighting a courageous battle against lung cancer. He was 66 years old.

He was respected and loved by everyone he came in contact with. Ger will be sorely missed by everyone, especially his family and neighbors.

Ger worked as a plumber for Wrightstown Plumbing and Heating Co. He proudly served his country in the Marine Corps during the Vietnam War. Ger enjoyed doing home remodeling, fishing and going to the casinos.

He is survived by his beloved wife of 43 years, Darlene M. (Haydu) Miller; his brothers and sisters, James Miller, Marie Rogers, Veronica Forster and David Miller in addition to many nieces and nephews and several great-nieces and nephews. Ger was preceded in death by his parents, Alexander and Marjorie Kinney Miller; brothers, Alexander P., William and Edward Miller; and a sister, Marjorie Zgura.

Mrs. Miller would like to send a special 'thank you' to all of his nurses who took care of him while he was on hospice and a very special 'thank you ' to Kathe Sobczak, his social worker.

Relatives and friends are invited to his viewing 7 to 9 p.m., Friday evening and 8:30 to 9:30 a.m. Saturday, at the Tomlinson Funeral Home, P.C., 2207 Bristol Pike, Bensalem, Pa. 19020, followed by a Funeral Mass, 10 a.m., Saturday, at St. Thomas Aquinas Church. Interment at the convenience of the family.

In lieu of flowers or Mass cards, please send a donation in Gerald's name to Crossroads Hospice, 523 Plymouth Road, Plymouth Meeting, PA 19462. Tomlinson Funeral Home
